

▷ Key HTML concepts (tags and what they do).

- Heading Tag :- Consist of 1-6 size of headings.
`<h1>` My first heading `</h1>`
- Paragraph Tag :- Used to write content or paragraph.
`` My first paragraph ``
- Comment :- specify a comment.
`<!-- This is a comment -->`
- Anchor Tag :- Specifies an anchor.
`Link `
- Break :- Inserts a single line break.
`
`
- Button :- Specifies a push button.
`<button>` Click `</button>`
- Caption :- Specifies a table caption.
`<caption>` This is good. `</caption>`
- Delete :- Specifies deleted text.
`` Text ``
- Div :- Specifies a section in a document.
`` ``
- Bold text :- Specifies bold text.
`` Paragraph ``
- Italic text :- Specifies italic text
`` This is italic ``

- small:- specifies small text
`<small> This is small text </small>`
- Big:- specifies big text.
`<big> This is big text. </big>`
- footer:- Used to create a footer.
`<footer> @ 2024 </footer>`
- forum:- Used to create a forum.
`<forum> </forum>`
- fieldset:- Used in forum to create boundaries.
`<fieldset> </fieldset>`
- Legend Tag:- Used to give heading for fieldset.
`<legend> Information </legend>`
- Iframe:- Specifies an inline sub window (frame)
`<iframe>`
- Image:- used to put an image.
``
- Marquee:- Create a scrolling-text marquee.
`<marquee> This is news. </marquee>`
- Navbar:- Used to create nav bars.
`<nav> </nav>`
- strong:- Specifies strong text
` This is strong `